The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in his Privy Council.

WHEREAS by an Act paſſed in the laſt Seſſion of Parliament, Entituled, "An "Act to enable his Majeſty to make Rules, Or-"ders and Regulations, more effectually to pre-"vent the ſpreading of the Diſtemper which "now rages amongſt the Horned Cattle in this "Kingdom,"——Powers are veſted in his Majeſty, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, from Time to Time, to make ſuch Rules, Orders and Regulations, or to vary and repeal the ſame, as ſhould be judged moſt expedient and effectual for putting a Stop to, or preventing the ſpreading of the ſaid Diſtemper. ——— And whereas, in Purſuance of the ſaid Powers, his Majeſty was pleaſed, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, on the Twelfth Day of March laſt, as likewiſe on the 17th Day of December laſt, to make ſeveral Rules, Orders and Regulations for the ſaid Purpoſes.——And whereas Application hath been this Day made to his Majeſty at this Board, to make ſome Variations from, and Additions to, the aforementioned Orders of Council,——His Majeſty, upon Conſideration thereof, is pleaſed, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to make the Variations and Additions following,—viz.

I. That no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer or Heifer, whether fat or lean, be ſuffered to paſs the Humber and Trent Northward, from the Nineteenth of this Inſtant January, to the Twenty ſeventh Day of March next—And for that Purpoſe, his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace of the the ſeveral Counties, Hundreds, Ridings and Diviſions, through which the ſaid Rivers run, are hereby required to cauſe ſtrict Watch to be conſtantly kept to guard all the Bridges, Fords, Boats and Ferries upon the ſaid Rivers, and to carry all Offenders herein, before the next Magiſtrate, to be dealt with according to Law.

II. That in all Caſes where lean Cattle ſhall be put out to Paſture, (whether the ſaid Paſture do belong to the Owner of ſuch Cattle, or be hired by him) and that ſuch Paſture ſhall not be found ſufficient to feed the Cattle put therein, Liberty be given to the Owners of ſuch Cattle to remove them to ſome other Paſture in the Neighbourhood, though it ſhould happen to lie in a different Pariſh; but that this Liberty be granted only for ſuch Cattle as are in Health, and free from any Diſtemper; and that a Certificate of their being ſo, muſt be obtained before their Removal, in like Manner as is required by his Majeſty's aforementioned Order of Council of the Seventeenth of December laſt, to be obtained upon the driving or removing and ſelling fatted Cows and Oxen; and that ſuch Certificate be delivered to one of the Church-wardens, Overſeers of the Poor, or Conſtables of the Town or Pariſh to which ſuch Beaſts ſhall be ſo removed, or to ſome Inſpector appointed by the Juſtices of the Peace.

III. That the Prohibition laid by his Majeſty's aforementioned Order of Council of the Seventeenth of December laſt, upon the Removal and Sale of Calves, be taken off from all fatted Calves, provided they are ſound and free from any Diſtemper, and that Proof thereof be made and certified in the ſame Manner and Form, as is required by the aforementioned Order, with reſpect to fatted Cows and Oxen.

Naples, Dec. 27. On the 13th Inſtant Baron Braitwitz took Poſſeſſion of the Poſt of Lieutenant General of the King's Forces, and was acknowledg'd as ſuch by the Military Officers aſſembled for that Purpoſe. On the 18th the Secretary of State received a Courier from the Conſul at Genoa, with Notice, that the Inhabitants of that City, as well as thoſe of the Weſtern, as Eaſtern Coaſts, had riſen up in Arms againſt the Auſtrian Troops, and ſeized their

their Magazines, Artillery, Ammunition, &c. On the 19th anchor'd in this Port from Cadiz and Ceuta, two Tranſport Veſſels with about 300 Spaniſh Soldiers. On the 23d Pere Vollera, of the Carmelitan Order, was, by Order of the Government, arreſted, on a Charge of holding a treaſonable Correſpondence.

Florence, Dec. 27, N. S. Several Couriers have paſſed by from Genoa in their Way to Naples, and though it is generally believed and reported, that both theſe, as well as thoſe that were ſent thither in the Beginning of the unhappy Revolt of the Genoeſe, were diſpatched with Sollicitations to that Court to aſſiſt them, yet the Letters from Rome and Naples of this Morning, do not make Mention of any new Motion in the Troops of that Kingdom.

Rome, Dec. 31, N. S. The Pope, to provide againſt the Scarcity of Money in this City, has cauſed an Edict to be publiſhed, inflicting rigorous Penalties on any one that ſhall tranſport any in Specie out of the Eccleſiaſtical State, or melt it; and in order to ſupply the immediate Want of Silver, the Sum of 25000 Crowns, in ſmall Pieces, is now coining at the Mint. Cardinal Acquaviva continues very ill, and with little Hopes of Recovering.

Leghorn, Jan. 2, N. S. We learnt Yeſterday by a Courier who came from Novi in two Days, that General Botta had been joined by upwards of 7000 Men. Count la Roeque, who commanded the Siege of Savona, has received Orders from the King of Sardinia to join him likewiſe with 20 Battalions, and about 6000 of the regular Militia, with a large Train of Artillery; and we are aſſured they are now upon their March. Numbers of People daily arrive here from Genoa, and ſeveral of the firſt Families are hourly expected.

Florence, Jan. 3, N. S. It is publickly reported, that the Court of Naples has refuſed to comply with the Sollicitations of the Genoeſe to enter into their Affairs, which Opinion is confirmed by ſeeing that there is no Motion in the Neapolitan Troops. Great Numbers of People from Genoa ſtill continue to arrive at Leghorn, ſo that the Town is quite crowded. Madam Brignoli, with ſeveral others of the principal Genoeſe Ladies, are expected here ſoon. And it is ſaid that ſome of the chief Velvet Weavers, and other Manufacturers, will ſettle at Piſa, and other Parts of Tuſcany, which muſt produce a great Advantage to this State. Pere Viſetti, a Jeſuit, who, in the Beginning of the Revolt at Genoa was employed by the People to treat with Marquis Botta, paſſed by here a few Days ago in his Way to Vienna. On the 19th paſt, agreeable to Directions from the Court of Vienna, the new Auditor Fiſcal ſummon'd the Marquis Torrigiani, Count Galli, the Bale Girolami and Montalici, and the Knight of Malta, Sera, and intimated to them to abſtain from talking ſo freely with regard to publick Affairs, and more reſpectfully of Sovereign Princes. The Knight of Malta, Sera, has, by the Regency, been order'd to retire to his Country-houſe till farther Orders. By the laſt Advices from Genoa, the Affairs there were in great Confuſion, eſpecially ſince the Reduction of the Fortreſs of Savona on the 18th paſt, by the King of Sardinia's Troops, where they found 120 Pieces of Cannon, and a Garriſon of 1400 Men. Count Brown continues his Operations in Provence, having attacked Antibes, and required of the King of Sardinia a Supply of Artillery, who has accordingly ſent him 12 Battering Pieces from Savona; Marſhal Botta is retired with his Troops to Novi, and General Vogthern is gone from Sarzana to Parma, on his Way to join Marſhal Botta, who is collecting together a ſufficient Body of Troops from the Garriſons in Lombardy, in order to quell the Revolt of the Genoeſe.

Nice, Jan. 6. The King of Sardinia will probably ſet out from hence To-morrow or next Day for Turin. By the laſt Letters from General Brown, he is wholly taken up with preparing for the Siege of Antibes. Though the Bombs, which have been thrown into that Place with ſome Succeſs, have not been able to reduce it, they have however had ſuch an Effect, that it is not doubted but it will ſurrender, when once the Batteries on the Shore are mounted, and begin to fire; and whilſt the Siege is carrying on, General Brown will be joined by a Reinforcement of Imperial and Piedmonteſe Troops, which are now actually on their March, and Part of them are arrived here. The advanced Poſts of General Brown's Army daily make ſome Progreſs, and extend themſelves in the Country, and particularly towards the Mountains, where they find Forage and other Subſiſtance.

Vienna, Jan. 11, N. S. Her Imperial Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint Count Kuffſtein, Vice-Chancellor of Auſtria, to be Stadhalter of this City, in the Room of the late Count Windiſchgratz; Count Oedt to ſucceed Count Kuffſtein as Vice-Chancellor of Auſtria; and Count Breuner to ſucceed Count Oedt as Deputy Stadthalter, they all took the Oaths on the 7th Inſtant, to qualify themſelves for their reſpective Employments. On the 8th Inſtant, in the Morning, died, after a ſevere Illneſs, Count Sigiſmund Rudolph Zinzendorff, Grandee of Spain of the firſt Claſs, Knight of the Golden Fleece, and Lord Steward of the Empreſs Queen's Houſhold, in the 77th Year of his Age.

Vienna, Jan. 14, N. S. Count Schulemberg ſets out the Day after To-morrow for Italy, to take the Command of the Imperial Army there in the room of the Marquis de Botta. Marſhal Konigſegg is appointed Grand Maſter, in the room of the late Count Zinzendorff, and is ſucceeded in his Poſt of Grand Maſter to the Empreſs Dowager, by Count Konigſegg Erps.

Hague, Jan. 20, N. S. The Province of Holland has this Day propoſed to the States General, to make Choice of a proper Perſon to command the Forces of the Republick under his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, which is referred to a Committee. Advices received To-day from Paris ſay, that it is reported there, that M. St. Severin, who was formerly Ambaſſadour at the Court of Sweden, is to ſucceed M. Puyſieux in the Negociation at Breda; but other Letters mention M. du Theil. It is likewiſe written from thence, that their Troops in Provence were upon the Point of marching forwards, having already transported their Ovens to Luc, and that the Spaniards who were at Brignolle, were advancing on one Side of the French Army. They add, that the Detachment under the Command of M. de Chevret, maintained itself in their Left, and had cleared the River Verdon of the Auſtrian Parties. That the main Body of the Auſtrians are intrenched in the Wood of l'Eſterel, and ſeem'd inclined to maintain themſelves there. That they continued to bombard Antibes, and were making Diſpoſitions to beſiege it in Form, having received Artillery from Savona. That Proviſions were extremely dear, and Forage ſcarce at the French Army, but much more ſo, as they ſuppoſed, with the Auſtrians.

Hague, Jan. 24, N. S. This Morning their High Mightineſſes named the Prince of Waldeck to command their Troops in Chief, the enſuing Campaign; and his Highneſs ſets out in a few Days for his Principality in Germany, upon his private Affairs, from whence he will return hither the Beginning of next Month. Count Waſſenaer has taken the Opportunity of M. de Puyſieux's Abſence from Breda, to make a Tour hither upon his Family Affairs. This Day Count Harrach, the Imperial Miniſter here, received a Courier from General Brown, whoſe Army he left on the 4th Inſtant. At his Departure Antibes was not inveſted; but when he paſſed through Savona, they were ſhipping off the heavy Artillery for the Siege of that Place. There are Letters from Geneva of the 13th Inſtant, which mention a ſmart Rencounter between thirty-two Companies of Grenadiers, ſuſtained by a Body of other Troops of M. Belleiſle's Army, and a large Body of Auſtrians, to the great Diſadvantage of the former. By a Letter from General Brown's own Hand, of the 24th paſt, it appears, that he had at that Time taken upwards of 40 Field Pieces, and raiſed 300,000 Livres of Contributions. We hear from Paris, that the French King has appointed Marſhal Saxe to be Marſhal General of France, with the ſame Powers and Emoluments as were granted to the Marſhal de Turenne.

Admiralty Office, January 16.

Capt. David Cheap, Commander of his Majeſty's Ship the Lark, gives an Account, by Letter dated the 13th Inſtant, that being off the Iſland of Madeira, in Company with his Majeſty's Ship the Glouceſter, commanded by Capt. Saunders, they gave Chace on the 25th of laſt Month to a Sail which was ſtanding to the Eaſtward; that the Glouceſter came up with her, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, and began to engage her, and in about Half an Hour ſhe ſtruck, and Capt. Cheap has brought her into Plymouth. The Prize is called le Fort de Nantz, of 650 Tuns, mounted with 32 Guns, and had 200 Men on board, two of which were killed. She was bound from la Vera Cruz and the Havanna to Cadiz, laden with 105 Cheſts of Silver, beſides a valuable Cargo of Cochineal, Indigo, Venails, Havanna Snuff, and Sugar.

A Treatise upon the useful Science of Defence, connecting the Small and Back Sword, and shewing the Affinity between them.

Likewise endeavouring to weed the Art of those superfluous, unmeaning Practices that over-run it, and choke the true Principles, by reducing it to a narrow Compass, and supporting it with Mathematical Proofs.

Also an Examination into the Performances of the most noted Masters of the Back-Sword that have fought upon the Stage, pointing out their Faults, and allowing their Abilities.

With some Observations upon Boxing, and the Characters of the most able Boxers within the Author's Time.

By Capt. JOHN GODFREY.
